sincere approbation goes out to you at the meeting this afternoon. It is a splendid thing for the women of the theatrical profession to ally themselves with the Red Cross and the great work women can do in this time of war, and I wish to extend my congratulation as well as appreciation.

Miss Margaret Wilson telegraphed re-srets that she could not be present.

Miss Elizabeth Marbury, who made the first speech, declared that she believed the country would have been plunged into civil war had the President acted as quickly as some people thought he should in declaring war.
"I don't want to stand here under false pretences," she said, "I was against Woodrow Wilson last November:

options to order witson last November: I opposed his reelection. But I am one of those who have been completely converted to belief in his patriotism, and while this time of waiting has been hard, I see now that had he made greater haste he could not have carried the country with him."

Perry bont's Loss, The Ocean Beach ferryboat Evelyn, which was offered to the navy a few days ago for war service as a freight carrier, was burned to the water's edge early vesterday in West Creek, Bayshore, L. I. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. A story that an airplane was seen flying eastward at a low altitude over the creek just before the fire started and also that an automobile was seen speeding through Main street from the direction of the dock caused comment, but nothing tangible could be traced. The Evelyn, which was valued at $15,-

600, was being overhauled and me-chanics went aboard a few days ago to take her engines apart. Since then no one has been aboard. She was lying directly in the rear of the home of John A. Wilbur, president of the company which owns her.

The theory that the fire was caused by an incendiary bomb is lent color to by the fact that the first notice of the blaze came with a loud explosion. Ac-cording to Mr. Wilbur there was nothing aboard the craft which could caused this.

In New York To-day. New York Curb Market Association pa went out, one reason for this being that most of the cooks are Frenchmen and are loyal to their head chef. Jean Ricroch. There are no Germans employed in the Vanderbilt. The only reason for even a partial success of the union movement, it was explained is that the cooks were hoodwinked by the men at the head of the union organization, who professed to have the welfare cott, exeming.
